

Senior IAM Consultant (m/f/d) - Keycloak Specialist

Join our team as a Senior IAM Consultant (m/f/d)! This role offers the flexibility of remote work from anywhere in France, with occasional travel to Bordeaux for client engagements.

Role Overview

As a Senior IAM Consultant at iC Consult, you will be instrumental in delivering cutting-edge Identity and Access Management (IAM) solutions to our clients. Leveraging your expertise in IAM platforms like Keycloak, Ping Identity, ForgeRock, or similar solutions, you will play a significant role in the design, implementation, and optimisation of IAM architectures tailored to meet our clients' specific business needs.

Your Responsibilities

- Drive IAM implementation projects, including requirements analysis, solution design, configuration, and deployment
- Offer expert guidance on IAM best practices, solution architecture, and integration strategies to align with clients' security and business objectives
- Conduct workshops, training sessions, and knowledge transfer activities to empower clients in managing their IAM environments effectively
- Collaborate closely with internal teams and external stakeholders to ensure IAM solutions meet business goals, security standards, and regulatory compliance
- Act as a trusted advisor to clients, providing strategic recommendations and ongoing support to optimise and enhance their IAM capabilities

Your Skills and Requirements

- Extensive experience in implementing and configuring IAM solutions, with proficiency in Keycloak and other IAM platforms like Ping Identity, ForgeRock, or similar
- Strong understanding of IAM architecture, encompassing identity lifecycle management, access control, single sign-on (SSO), and multi-factor authentication (MFA)
- Exceptional problem-solving skills, project management abilities, and a collaborative mindset to drive successful IAM initiatives in a remote work environment
- Fluency in both French and English languages
- Willingness to occasionally travel to Bordeaux for client engagements, workshops, and meetings
